about

Hello, my name is Kassi Emmanuel. Having had a camera in my hand most of my life it was only natural for me to want to study photography. Originally from West Tennessee, I studied at Middle Tennessee State University where I received a BS in Mass Communication (specializing in Photography and Art) in 1999. I have been photographing weddings for over 10 years.

I got married in 2002 and have a son named Mikhail. We have lived in Nashville since 2000. I have also traveled to many countries in Europe and Africa where I have been able to concentrate on my artistic photography.

As a photographer, I have a photojournalistic style which I use for weddings. I like to shoot a lot of candid photos on your wedding day as well as the more formal shots. My goal is to try and record every key moment from start to finish creating almost a storybook of images of your wedding day.
